Release and Consent

I do hereby release and discharge The MacKenzie Camp Society and the United Church of Canada of and from all actions, causes of actions, claims, demands & suits howsoever arising which I may hereafter have arising out of the attendance of (my child) _____

at MacKenzie Camp in accordance with this application & I hereby indemnify & save them harmless for any damages arising out of such actions, claims, demands or suits. In signing this release, I acknowledge the element of risk involved in my child participating in the activities carried out at MacKenzie Camp & declare that I am satisfied that all reasonable precautions will be taken by employees of the MacKenzie Camp Society to minimize such risks. I hereby declare that to the best of my knowledge my child is in good health & is not being treated for any medical condition which would restrict his/her participation in the physical activities to be conducted at MacKenzie Camp except as stated above. I further confirm that I will supply any medications, including pain killers or treatment for insect bites which my child may require together with written instructions as to the use of such medications. I hereby consent to medical treatment on behalf of my child as determined by a physician(s) engaged by MacKenzie Camp Society in the event that I cannot be contacted during an emergency. I am aware that pictures may be taken by other campers over which MacKenzie Camp has no control. I agree that pictures taken at camp by MacKenzie Camp staff may be used for promotional purposes, both on paper and digitally. Personal Information Protection: The MacKenzie Camp Society has a policy in place in compliance with the legislation of the province of British Columbia. Copies of all policies are available upon request.
